

LT Game is about to Launch a Brand New Themed Slot Game "Hulunbuir Grassland"

Hulunbuir Prairie is a beautiful place and one of the few pure lands with no pollution in the world, with endless grassland, borderless blue sky and forms of white clouds. It is also the origin of many northern natives, nurturing unique ethnic culture, such as wrestling, hunting, archery and the Lasso of the Horse activity. For such a unique and attractive theme, as a game production expert, of course we cannot miss it! LT Game team adopted these unique grassland characteristics, integrated them with innovative gameplay, and launched the new slot game "Hulunbuir Grassland".

"Hulunbuir Grassland" is the newly produced game by LT Game collaborated with Maestro Ulaantug the nationally recognized First Grade Composer. Authorized by Maestro Ulaantug, his music pieces were used as the soundtracks running through the whole game. At the same time, the Maestro also played an important role as the consultant to coach game designers on the representations of prairie culture, making the game to authentically display grassland culture characteristics: wild geese flying in the sky, shepherd dogs chasing the sheep, horses galloping across the land; herdsmen in traditional costumes singing, dancing and raising their wine glasses for a toast; yurts lining up as a string of pearls located in the distance... With the melodious ethnic music in the ear, the beauty of the four seasons comes into view, it is just like the real grassland reality fully displayed in front of the player.

Four distinct seasons of grassland

Same as the other slot games by LT Game, "Hulunbuir Grassland" includes various bonus games, free games and Jackpot game. However, the major difference is that LT Game designer team deliberately integrated the thrilling archery and equestrian activities of the grassland life into the game and proposed an adventure with excitements:

"The Archery Jackpot Bonus Game"

The Archery Jackpot Bonus Game

The newly designed "The Archery Jackpot Bonus Game", as the name suggested, is a game based on archery. The higher multiply the player's bet, the greater the probability is to randomly trigger the game. Once the game is triggered, the game would simulate the real archery game: first to aim at the archery target, draw the bow and then shoot out the arrows. When the arrow hits different specific areas in the target, corresponding rewards—four different price levels ranging from 10,000 credits to 100,000 credits—would be granted to the players.

“The Lasso of the Horse”

Horse Lassoing is a traditional equestrian activity for grassland herdsmen to embody bravery and wisdom. When the Lasso of the Horse game is randomly triggered, the player becomes a warrior on the grassland chasing the galloping horses. If the player misses any horse, chances would be given until finally one horse is captured. Any lassoed horse will bring out the corresponding reward, including 5000, 2000, 1000 or 250 credit. The bonus credits granted will be multiplied as the player multiplied his bets. A maximum of 25,000 credits can be won.

The Lasso of the Horse

“Wild” & Unlimited “Free Game”

The magic stones that appear during the base games will burst into any pattern including “Wild”. If a whole row of magic stones appears, there is a chance that the magic stones will all burst into “Wild” and further increase the player's chance of profiting. In addition, when three or more Scatters appear, it can trigger up to 30x Free Games, and the same scenario occurring during Free Games will trigger free games again and give players a chance to win unlimited free games.

Magic Stone

WILD

All in all, "Hulunbuir Grassland" uses vivid graphics and beautiful music to create a feeling of being in the prairie: horses galloping on the boundless grass, geese roaming the blue sky, white sheep herds and green hills, together with the sound of the Morin khuur. Also, "The Archery Jackpot Bonus Game" and "The Lasso of the Horse" allow the players to experience the excitements of prairie life and further immerse in the atmosphere of the Hulunbuir Grassland with the benefit of earning substantial winnings. “Hulunbuir Grassland” will let the players have a whole new fun in the game!
